

Montgomery County Coalition on End-of-Life Care invites you to:

Consider the Conversation

a documentary film and panel discussion

Thursday, April 7, 2011

6:30-9:00 p.m.

Silver Spring Civic Building at One Veteran's Plaza

The building is located in downtown Silver Spring at the intersection of Fenton Street and Ellsworth Drive.

Parking in County garages is free after 6pm.

No registration required.

Program:

6:30 Refreshments and resources

7:00 View documentary

8:00 Panel presentations and open discussion

Panelists:

Marion Lane, spouse/caregiver

Rev. Dr. Gwen London, end-of-life expert

Anna Moretti, RN, ANP, JD, nurse/attorney

Judy Peres, LCSW-C social worker/policy expert

It may be hard to imagine being too ill to make decisions about your own healthcare. But it could happen.

Learn how to talk about what is most important to you. Make our wishes known.

www.considertheconversation.org

www.mccelc.org

www.NationalHealthcareDecisionsDay.org

This event is supported by the Montgomery County Area Agency on Aging; Commissions on Aging, Health, and People with Disabilities; Capital City Nurses; Whole Foods; and Drink More Water.